

We Provide The Services You Need

"Matching the labor needs of employers with the employment needs of people."

The specific services and supports that can be provided through ServiceSource, at no cost to business, include:

- Recruitment in the disability community
- Development of job training programs
- Increase Diversity - Disability Issues, Diversity Planning and Increasing Supplier Diversity
- Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) consultation and Disability Awareness training
- Information on and assistance in developing strategies to meet the proposed Section 503 Regulations pertaining to federal contractors
- Tax incentive information
- Public relations/communication and marketing to the disability community
- Mentoring, coaching & internship programs
- Job placement & retention

For over 50 years, ServiceSource has been working with local businesses to help them fulfill their workforce needs.