

An Inclusive Community Facilitating Growth and Independence through Friendship

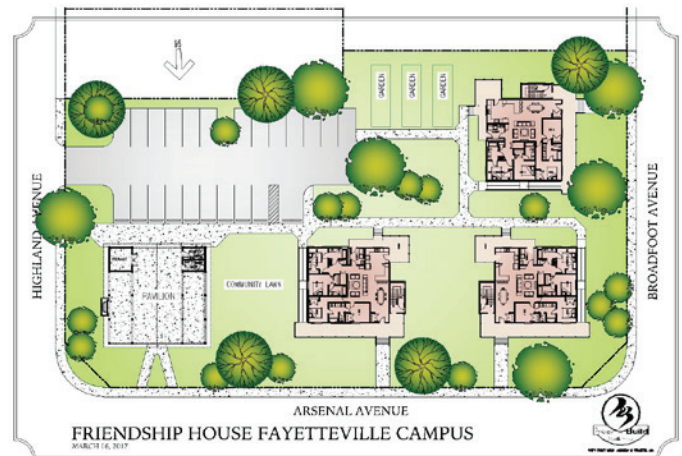

Build your legacy and help to bring Friendship House to Fayetteville

$1.3 million in pledge commitments are needed to make Friendship House Fayetteville a reality.

WHAT IS FRIENDSHIP HOUSE?

Friendship House Fayetteville is an intentional living community that provides affordable, integrated housing for young adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities (I/DD) and healthcare professional students.

The concept of Friendship House was first established in Holland, Michigan on the campus of Western Theological Seminary. In the Spring of 2010, Duke Divinity School students and Reality Ministries replicated Friendship House in Durham, North Carolina. Today, ServiceSource North Carolina, in partnership with Highland Presbyterian Church, seeks to replicate a third Friendship House in Fayetteville, North Carolina.

MISSION

Friendship House Fayetteville works alongside young adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families to provide intentional, transitional living. At its core, this faith-based community is rooted in table fellowship expressed through a daily rhythm of eating, praying and celebrating together.

FRIENDSHIP HOUSE MODEL

Three homes will be constructed, each with two apartment floors. In each apartment floor, three students live with one "friend resident." Friend residents are young adults with I/DD who have lived at home with family supports. As a gateway to independent living, friend residents are expected to have part-time jobs or significant volunteer work and care for themselves. Residents live as roommates and friends. This model of inclusive living brings education and awareness to both the students and friends. Students gain compassion in how they care for patients. Friends are empowered and gain independent living skills.
