Bill, General Manager at the Westin Wilmington, DE

“I think it’s vitally important that we work with everyone in the community and that everyone in the community has the same opportunity to work. The payback is tenfold on the employer and supervisors who get to work with people with disabilities and have an opportunity to learn how to train and develop people differently. It makes us stronger.”

Kristopher, Warehouse/Material Handling Training Program, Wilmington, DE

“I’m a material handler. I operate the forklift and do shipping and receiving. To be honest [before this], I didn’t do anything for a while. I was in between jobs in a sense. I like to be in the warehouse. You can be yourself out here. It’s something that I enjoy doing, something I never thought I would be doing. ServiceSource has helped me build confidence. I really didn’t have too much confidence in the beginning of working here. Even my mom has seen a very big difference in me.”
