Emil, Ramp Service Airport Agent Tampa, FL

Emil sought the guidance and assistance of the Vocational Rehabilitation program through ServiceSource in Florida to find a job related to his dream industry: automotive. In his first year on the job, Emil saved up enough money to buy a car. As for employing people with disabilities, Emil urges employers, "Don't be afraid to give them a chance. They might not be able to read what they have to do, but they will be able to know how to do it."

Grant, Program Manager Warrior Bridge Clearwater, FL

"As a veteran, I too have experienced the challenges of reintegrating to civilian life. In service, we're told where to go and what to do. When we're discharged, some of us have a difficult time finding our place back in society. My transition has passed and I have a responsibility to help my fellow veterans get back to being productive members of society. My work at ServiceSource Warrior Bridge affords me the opportunity and means to carry out the vital mission of helping our country's veterans achieve and maintain self-sufficiency."
